I wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Cutbirth Family, which is from my father's line.

I started this back in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but still had many other members of their family I could call on to get info. Otherwise I worked at the court house, library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop.

This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research.

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

MARRIAGE1: According to researchers Benjamin was married first 1789 in NC, possibly Ashe or Rowan Co, to Salina Callaway. On the same day a sister of Benjamin, Mary Cutbirth md Elijah Callaway in Ashe or Rowan Co. NC. Believe them to be brothers and sisters. However no one in the Callaway family says Salina belongs to that family, and on further checking she more likely is not a sister to Elijah but a cousin. The Draper collection has stated in several articles that Elijah's children were nieces and nephews to Benjamin Cutbirth. That could only be thru the Cutbirth line but other indictions were thru the Callaway line also. Benjamin and Salina was said to have had 8 children. Mary Cutbirth and Elijah Callaway was said to have md in Ashe Co. NC.

MARRIAGE2: This marriage record is recorded in Morgan Co. IN. Benjamin and Catherine Crutchfield was said to have had 8 children. Have copy of mg record. (last child b 1842 and she died 1848 Iowa.)

DEATH: Benjamin Cutbirths estate record was recorded at Burlington, Des Moines Co. IA, of which I have a copy. Soloman & Elias Cutbirth, adm of estate. Land located in Sec 18 Twp 69 Union Twp. of 110 acres. Have not located any burial place for Benjamin but the area he lived in was later part of a Military area and not open to public now. WIFE - Salina Callaway

Source: Draper Collection states Salina Callaway married Benjamin Cutbirth. However no one in the Callaway family has a listing for a Salina Callaway. They do have two daughters listed for Thomas and Jude with no info and Elijah Callaway's two sons stated Benjamin md Salina and was Aunt and Uncle. Had believed Mary, wife of Elijah was sister to Benjamin and could have been the reference for Aunt and Uncle but they also stated Salina Callaway md Benjamin and if the Thomas Callaway who died in Knox Co. TN in 1819 was their father, neither was listed in his will. Believe Salina was deceased but Elijah was not. It is beginning to look like Salina was dau of Thomas Jr and Jude and Elijah was a cousin, being son of Thomas Sr and Mary Baker? Callaway. Draper Collection 9C p82: by one letter written to Mr Draper for B.C. Callaway who was son of Elijah Callaway who md Mary Cutbirth said his Aunt Salina Callaway md Benjamin Cutbirth on same day his father md Mary Cutbirth so in order to be an Aunt, Salina would have to have been a sister to Elijah and no one list her as dau of Thomas and Mary Baker Callaway, course no one list her for Thomas Jr. either for that matter. Elijah b. 1769 believed to have been last child and he states he was the son of Thomas and Mary Baker Callaway in a letter to Mr Draper also.

Marriage date was listed as 7 Apr 1789, same day as Elijah Callaway and Mary Cutbirth married in NC, prob. Rowan, Wilkes Counties.

DEATH: Appears to have died after 1820 census and prob. before 1824 when Benjamin md 2nd.
Had thought she died before 1819 when Thomas Callaway Jr died as she wasn't listed in his will but it still appears she was living in 1820. (she wasn't the onlly child that wasn't listed in his estate that was living)

Find A Grave internet site listed birth date 1770 Rowan Co. NC and death date 1823, Morgan Co. IN. Listed Spouse Benjamin Cutbirth 1764-1848 an 1 of 8 children james 1790-1835. Also was listed as Daughter of Thomas Callaway and Judea Ann EARLY. Other source listed Jude Ann MOFFITT and Thomas Callaway Jr.(either name I have not come across myself in all research I have done-GLT). I have her name as Jude Sander Farrah. -GLT.

Salina had 8 children known. Born between abt 1790 and 1809. Believe she had died before 1819 probably in Knox Co. KY. (Maybe she was still living in 1820 in Morgan Co. IN with husband)

Not located them in 1790 census. By 1795 they were in Washington Co. TN and by 1800 they were in Carter Co. TN and by 1805 in Knox Co. KY.

1810 census of Knox Co. KY list one Benjamin Cutbearth Jr. with males to 10-1 10/16-1 16/26-1 26/45-1 and females to 10-3 10/16-1 16/26-1 26/45-1

1811 in Knox Co. KY and 1813 thru 1817 in Knox Co. KY.

1819 Benjamin was said to be in Morgan Co. IN and had the 1st corn cracker mill and sold it in 1823 to start hunting for a living again. Believe Salina had died by this time.

1820 Delaware Co. IN pg 33: Benjamin Cutbirth m- to 10-2 18/26-3 over 45-1 and f- 10/16-2 16/26-1 over 45-1 (if the over 45 is still Salina, then she died after 1820 so maybe closer to 1823)

IN.

Benjamin had married 2nd in IN by 1823 and he had 8 more children by this mg.

CHILD 1 - James Cutbirth

Some info from persons doing research, some have stated James was their first son and probably born ca 1790 in NC.

I have not located proof of James to date, however there was a James and Mary Ann Cutbirth in census records in KY that could be them. More info under Cutbirth family. However that James was maybe the one listed 1819-1840 in Whitley Co. KY. But this James b. 1790 so who was the J. Cutbirth 1819-1840???

James Cutbirth was listed as husband of "Polly" Hackler in record by Rosanah Hackler dated 1834 in Whitley Co. KY and also listed their children. Deed Book 1 pg 485 31 Jan 1834 Whitley Co. KY.
Even though listed Rosanah's dau and husband and grandchildren, this document doesn't appear to be a will but maybe was done in place of one! In this deed also was stated that "during the absence of their father, James Cuthbirth," (which leads to believe James was gone but not yet deceased in 1834) This info also from Melvina Arnett.

1795 Washington Co. TN with parents age 5.

1800 Carter Co. TN with parents ge 15.

1810 Knox Co. KY census list Benjamin Cutbearth haveing one son age 16/26 that could be James who would be ca 25.

Possibly married 1810-1815, no record Knox Co. KY.

Researchers have stated James died in Whitley Co. KY. There was a J. Cutbirth listed in Whitley Co. Ky cemetery record but date was 1819- Apr 1840 so didn't think that one was this James. So he either died by 1840 or was out of county at that time.

1840 Mary Cutbird in Whitley Co.KY m- 10/15-1 15/20-2 20/30-1 f- 5/10-2 10/15-2 40/50-1

MO with daughter and close of Civil War she moved back to Culbirth farm on Swan Creek in Christian? Co. MO. Was said she and grandson watched troups go by and both died a day or two later and was buried at the Cutbirth cem, on edge of Swan Creek, marked with cotton Rocks, 7 other graves there. (1865 son Joseph settled her estate).

Great Grandsons' of Benjamin Cutbirth Jr. in Whitley Co. KY. Joseph L. and Benjamin Franklin Cutbirth joined the 49th KY Volunteers, US Army. Joseph served as Corporal and Benjamin was private. Joseph moved to Kansas after the war and Benjamin went to Arkansas. WHO WERE THESE CHILDREN'S PARENTS? Apparently now they are sons of James and Mary Ann's son James and Thursey Cutbirth.

CHILD: 7 -- Nancy Curbirth

Some info by persons doing research and much of my own, some have stated Nancy was a dau and probably born ca 1807 prob Knox Co. KY. (Census 1811).

Marriage recorded for Nancy Curbirth to Hiram Tarsey in Morgan Co. IN record # 25. Hiram's name spelled Tarsey but other spellings also show up.

1810 Knox Co. KY census list Benjamin Culbreath having one dau age to 10 that could be Nancy.

1820 probably with parents at age 9-13.

1830 Morgan Co. IN pg 265: Hiram Tarsey males--to 5-2 20/30-1, and females to 5-1 20/30-1. (not in index, but checked complete census--film # 0027191)

CHILD 8 - Jane Cutbirth

By persons doing research, some have stated Jane was a dau and probably born ca 1809 prob Knox Co. KY. Could she have been born a little earlier about 1796?

Marriage record of Jane to Green DeWitt in Morgan Co. IN. Mg record # 93. 12 Feb 1830

Could have md 2nd by 1844 to Isaac Hendrix

1810 Knox Co. KY census list Benjamin Cutbearth having a dau age to 10 that could be Jane.

1820 Jane would be age 11 prob. w/parents in Delaware Co. IN (2 females age 10/16)

1830- Jane would be age 22 and md in Feb so should be with husband. (need to check index)
Parents in Morgan Co. IN but no one this age listed with them.

1840 may have located one Jane DeWitt in 1840 Perry Co. IN pg 414 li 5: Jane DeWitt age 50/60 with 3 males, 1 to 5, one 15/20 and one 20/30. If our Jane was born ca 1809 age would be off. but census taker could have missed the mark as well? This age would be off if born in 1809 as should be about 33. (copy)

1850 there was one Isaac Hendrix Hancock Co. In pg 254 (507?) Buck Creek Twp age 79 NC, Jane 47 KY, Jeremiah Walker 27 IN, James Skimerhorn 17 IN, Isaac Hendrix 10 IN. (which would be close to right age for Jane if born ca 1809) (copy)

1860 Marion Co. IN listed one Jane Cutber age 50 and Jerry S. DeWitt age 35 (idiotic) and Isaac Hendrix age 19 (again age for Jane close if b. 1809) Jerry could be son but parents weren't md till 1830 and if his age is right he would have been born 1825 maybe from first mg of Green?)

1870 Not located right Jane Hendrix in index. Did locate one Isaac Hendricks in Marion Co. IN, 6 ward Indianapolis pg 332 (roll 341) age 29 with wife Drewsilla age 28 and Francis M. age 2 in home of William Clack/Cluck? Could be same Isaac as age would be abt right. (copy)

Virgene Scolnik has done a lot of research on this family and she located a death certificate of one Isaac Hendricks that the informant was Francis Hendricks wihich does fit.

No land records in Morgan Co. In of Green DeWitt.

5 Jan 2005 received an e-mail from the Cutbirth roots web board from Virgene of Northwest IN.

One Isaac Hendrix married a Jane DeWett in 1844 in Hendricks Co. IN (could be Isaac Sr and Jr son from previous mg) .

So if this Jane md 1st to Green DeWitt and maybe had a son Jerry DeWitt then Green died or was div? then she md Isaac Hendricks in 1844, even though he was much older then her, that did happen at that time. So need to check out these things in FT Wayne IN in May 2005.

She said she located a Jane age 47 on the 1850 census of Hancock Co. IN living with Isaac Hendrix age 79 NC along with Jeremiah Walker age 27, James Skimerhorn age 17 and Isaac Hendrix age 10. Jeremiah Walker is likely a carpenter who's home was in Jennings Co. IN. He first md Jane Bradt before 1850 and 2nd Mrs Lucretia McLaughlin after 1880. Jeremiah's dau, Mary may have had a son Charles Hinchman.

One Isaac Hendricks md Drusilla Hour 17 Apr 1864 IN (could be Isaac Jr).

One Isaach Hendricks md one Lydia Jones before 9 Nov 1837 as sold land in Wayne Co. IN that date to George W. Willitt, where he had purchased that same land few months earlier and also had married Lydia Jones that same year in Wayne Co. IN. (this could be 1st wife of Isaac SR.)

I did a lot of checking of books and census records at Ft Wayne, IN library and didn't come up with much more then Virgene had located other then did fine one Jane Hendricks in 1870 census in Marion Co. In 3rd ward, Indianapolis pg 144 age 74 living in household of W.S. Pierce 48 and wife Ann H. and along with that in Shelby Co. In located a will of one Jane T. Hendricks died 1874 and left to dau Ann Pierce and sons: Abraham T., Thomas A., John and James Bk E pg 181 but know this is not our Jane Cutbirth DeWitt Hendricks.

Checked Marion Co IN, Hancock Co IN, Hendricks Co. IN and also family books of DeWitt and Hendricks and found no more info on these people.

Virgene listed birth date of Isaac Hendricks Jr as 7 Aug 1840 Hancock Co. IN and death listed as 8 Mar 1908 Marion Co. IN where he had been living in the Soldiers and Sailors Home. He may have received a pension for his Civil War service as Virgene said he gave testimony for pension and mentioned a Robert Day and on the 1900 census Roberty Day and Isaac are listed as partners in ditching or well digging. Why would have have mentioned him and not a wife?

She said she located a Jane age 42 on the 1850 census of Hancock Co. IN living with Isaac Hendrix age 73 NC along with Jeremiah Wales age 27, James Sidnerfrom age 12 and Isaac Hendrix age 10. Jeremiah Walter is likely a carpenter who's home was in Jennings Co. IN. He first md Jane Brett before 1830 and 2nd Mrs Lucretia McLaughlin after 1850. Jeremiah's dau, Mary may have had a son Charles Hindman.

One Isaac Hendricks md Dunsis Hour 17 Apr 1864 IN (could be Isaac Jr).

One Isaiah Hendricks md one Lydia Jones before 9 Nov 1837 as sold land in Wayne Co. IN that date to George W. Wiatt, where he had purchased that same land few months earlier and also had married Lydia Jones that same year in Wayne Co. IN. (this could be 1st wife of Isaac Sr.)

I do a lot of checking of books and census records at Ft Wayne, IN library and didn't come up with much more than Wigens had located other than one time Jane Hendricks in 1870 census in Marion Co. In 3rd ward, Indianapolis pg 194 age 24 living in household of W.S. Pierce 48 and wife Ann H. and along with that in Shelby Co. In located a will of one Jane T. MARRIAGE1: According to researchers Benjamin was married first 1789 in NC, possibly Ashe or Rowan Co, to Salina Callaway. On the same day a sister of Benjamin, Mary Cutbirth md Elijah Callaway in Ashe or Rowan Co. NC. Believe them to be brothers and sisters. However no one in the Callaway family says Salina belongs to that family, and on further checking she more likely is not a sister to Elijah but a cousin. The Draper collection has stated in several articles that Elijah's children were nieces and nephews to Benjamin Cutbirth. That could only be thru the Cutbirth line but other indictions were thru the Callaway line also. Benjamin and Salina was said to have had 8 children. Mary Cutbirth and Elijah Callaway was said to have md in Ashe Co. NC.

According to statment from Melvina Arnett Feb 2006, she stated according to Mr Loyal Albert Johnson, a Cutbirth descendant, Solomon raised two orphan girls, Emaline and unknown. (Wonder why they were never listed in a census-GLT). We do know Solomon did have his younger brother and sister living with him for a while although in census they were listed as step-bro & step-sis.

1920 only one Benjamin F. Cutburth age 66 MO Green Co. MO but not old enough either.

Melvina Arnetts info stated he was born 1837 Oakland co. MI but I don't think that is right as far as I know his parents went from IN to Iowa. She used soure of Roster Iowa Soldiers - War of Rebellion, Vol 2 Company E pge 20.
Benjamin Cutberth age 24, residence Vernon, nativity, Michigan.
Enlisted Dec 20 1861. Mustered Dec 20, 1861. Deserted Jun 25, 1862 Pittsburg Landing, Tenn.

BIRTH: Emily would have been Benjamins 16th child, he would be abt 77 years of age at time of her birth in 1842 The 1925 census listed her father as Benjamin Cutbirth and mother as Katherine Crutchfield.

MARRIAGE: There was a marriage in Des Moines Co. IA of one Emma Cutbirth age 25 to Robert Greeves age 30 6 Apr 1870 at home of William Salter, 8th St, Burlington, IA. That would appear this was this person. Wife of Robert in 1870 census was listed as Emily so maybe the name was wrong on the mg record as most census do list her as Emily as did the cemetery records.

DEATH: Located burial info from Guss cem, Taylor co. IA that believe is her, her husband and 2 daughters. Row 2 Sec 1 North to South #2.10 Emily Grieves 22 Apr 1842 - 29 Mar 1932. CHILDREN: Was stated in the 1910 census she had 2 children, which would have been daughters Margaret & Helen, yet in the 1880 census was listed Clarence Andrew age 2 IA son..

1840 parents in Des Moines Co. IA, but believe Emily was born after census as she would have been 8th child and there were 7 listed in census.

1850 Appanoose Co. IA Emily living with brother Solomon and wife age 8 years. This census say she was step sister, but should be sister?

1856 Des Moines Co. IA state census, Union Twp. Emmily age 14 IA listed with Solomon Cutbuth and Amanda.

Mary A. Doty was born in the year 1826 near Defiance, Ohio, and came to Linn county, Iowa, when 18 years of age and settled at Mt. Vernon.

She was married August 15th, 1847, to Horatio H. Walker and moved to Buchanan county in 1856 and settled in Hazleton township where she continuously resided.

Six children were born to this union, all of whom are living. Their names are as follows: Daniel Austin of Davis county, Neb.; Ephriam of Hazleton; Mrs. Jno. Hitchings of Parsons, Kansas; Mrs. F. E. Erdman of Rosalie, Washington; Mrs. E. R. Truax of Des Moines; H. L. Walker of Brownsville, Oregon. Mrs. Hitchings and Mrs. Truax and Ephriam Walker were present at the funeral. She also leaves sixteen grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Mahalia Snyder of Mt. Vernon who attended the funeral and one brother Ephriam Doty of Mt. Vernon who was unable to be present.

Her husband died September 4th, 1883. Mrs. Walker united with the Presbyterian church of Hazleton on February 3rd, 1896. She was also a member of the Woman's Relief Corps. She lived alone for thirty years and was taken sick while attending to her daily work on Friday, September 19. She passed away at 1:35 on Sunday, September 21, 1913.

She was a good woman and lived many years, having the love and esteem of the people. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth. The funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church Tuesday at 2 p. m. and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. C. H. Peck assisted by I[illegible] Mason. Interment was in the Hazleton cemetery.

Notes

- "The Callaways". Among the Kentucky pioneers was Col. Richard Calloway. Two of his daughters, Betsy and Fanny, were captured with Jemima, Boone's second daughter, in a boat at Boonesborough, Ky., on the 17th of July, 1776. They were recovered unharmed soon afterwards;[19] and in the following August Betsy was married to Samuel Henderson, one of the rescuing party. Jemima Boone afterwards married Flanders Calloway, a son of Colonel Calloway. It was this Colonel Calloway who accused Boone of having voluntarily surrendered 26 of his men at the Salt Licks; that when a prisoner at Detroit he had engaged with Gov. Hamilton to surrender Boonesborough, and that he had attempted to weaken the garrison at Boonesborough before its attack by the Indians by withdrawing men and officers, etc.;[22] but Boone was not only honorably acquitted, but promoted from a captaincy to that of major. Related to this Colonel Calloway was Elijah Calloway, son of Thomas Calloway of Virginia, who "did much for the good of society and was a soldier at Norfolk, Va., in the War of 1812."[23] John Calloway represented Ashe county in the House in 1800, and in the Senate in 1807, 1808,1809; and Elijah Calloway was in the House from

1813 to 1817, and in the Senate in 1818 and 1818, and 1819. One of these men is said to have walked to Raleigh, supporting himself on the way by shooting game, and in this way saved enough to build a brick house with glass windows, the first in Ashe, near what is now Obid. He was turned out of the Bear creek Baptist church because he had thus proven himself to be a rich man; and the Bible said no rich man could enter the kingdom of heaven. The ehureh in which he was tried was of logs, but the accused sat defiantly during the 'trial in a splint-bottomed chair, which he gave to Mrs. Sarah Miller of that locality. This may have been Thomas Calloway, whose grave is at Obid, marked with a long, slender stone which had marked one of the camping places of Daniel Boone. [S1]

- Elijah and Mary (Cutbirth) Calloway settled on south fork of New River in Ashe Co., NC, ten miles south of Jefferson. Both are buried in the Faw-Calloway graveyard, Ashe Co., NC. Tombstone inscriptions read as follows:
  - "Elijah Calloway, Esquire. Born in Virginia, Oct. 12, 1769. Departed from this life March 3, 1847 (Date verified). Aged 77 years, 4 months, 21 days. He was a Christian strong in faith and hope" and "Mrs. Mary (Cutbeard) Calloway. Grand-niece of Daniel Boone. Died Dec. 17, 1843. Aged 73 years"[S1]
- "Elijah Calloway's will was recorded in Ashe Co., NC and gives as beneficiaries: his wife, Mary, and sons: Benjamin Cleveland Calloway, Thomas S. Calloway and Elijah Calloway, Jr. The will was witnessed by Isham Calloway."

"The old mantle in the original home of Elijah Calloway is now in the Bowie home in Ashe Co., NC. The names of their children and the dates of birth were copied from the bible of Elijah Calloway, now in the possession of Mr. Jones Waddell, Scottsville, NC, who received it through his mother, Martha Jones Waddell, dau. of Daniel and Caroline (Calloway) Jones." Letter from Elijah Calloway to Lyman C. Draper,
Regarding Benjamin Cutbirth:

June 10, 1845
Walnut Grove, Ashe County, N.C.
"Benjamin Cutbirth, the great hunter and explorer of the West, was born in Augusta County, Virginia, about the year 1740. The reader will take notice that it's the object of the author to write history of the most enterprising and adventurous pioneers of the 1st settlers which came in the scope of his knowledge such as Daniel Boone; Benjamin Cleveland, Isaac Shelby. All who obtained their 1st honor by their exploits like Nimord the great, the first Monarch that ever was on the face of the earth, obtained his first honors by his firearms exploits."
"Benjamin Cutbirth, the object of this history, as his father died when he was young and his widowed mother married when he was grown to manhood and his being an interprising nature he early left his stepfather's house and emigrated to Roan County, N.C. When he immediately became acquainted with Daniel Boone, the great hunter.
As the woods was Cutbirth's great delight and as he was a hunter himself he set out to hunt with Boone. They ranged the forest far and wide and were frequently among the Indians who very often expressed dissatisfaction with them for killing their game and in one of their hunting tours and when they had killed and Indians came upon them and took everything they had. The author has been many a time where the robbery was committed as Cutbirth long afterwards became the author's father-in-law, and as he and Cutbirth was frequently together they frequently covered these subjects."
"About this time a marriage contract was made between Cutbirth and Elizabeth Wilcockson, a niece of Daniel Boone's and as Cutbirth was married in the family he and Boone continued to range the forest for all the Indians would sometimes rout them . . .
"Cutbirth having lost his lands (in Kentucky) and his Brother-in-law, Samuel Wilcoxen, a nephew of Boone, returned back to North Carolina where they lived until they raised all their children. Cutbirth in his old age moved to Tennessee where the speculators again took away his lands. He and his old Lady which was a niece of Daniel Boone's has long since laid down their bodies upon Elke River in Tennessee after living in the Baptist Church about 40 years."
"I have very many times heard Mother as well as Father speake of the Trip of my GrandFather Cutbirth and his companions to the Mississippi River and to New Orleans - at the time he made this trip which must have been about 1765 he lived in the Forks of the Yadkin, Rowan County, N. C., now Davie County.- At the time GrandFather Cutbirth Left home on this long and most hazardous Trip or Hunt, my Grand Mother his wife had but two children sons - and her only sons- Daniel and Benjamin and after his return home he had two Daughters borne to him by my Grand Mother - Mary and Sally. Mary which is my Mother was the eldest of the two and was born in some Twelve or Eighteen Months after the return of my G.Father to his Family and was in the year 1770.

I only saw my Uncle Daniel Cutbirth once some 20 years ago and I well recollect to have heard him tell Mother that he could recollect his Father leaving home and his long absence on this Western trip across the Blue Ridge, Alleghanies and other Mountains to the Mississippi.

My other uncle Benjamin Cutbirth I never saw - he now resides in the Iowa Territory - and my Brother, B. C. Calloway who saw him some two or three years ago tells me that he could well recolect his Father's return Home from this western trip but had no recolection of his leaving home on the Trip he being too young at the time.-

I have no recolection of ever seeing my GrandFather Cutbirth he having left N.C. There does not remain a shadow of dobt of his haveing made the trip as stated in the narrative of my father - and their is no less doubt that he and his companion was the first white men that ever traversed the Wilderness between North Carolina and the Mississippi River in a westerly direction their route no doubt lay through the now State of Tenessee - to the Mississippi River and far on the western side of the River and down to New Orleans and on their return trip their course lay through the now states of Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and thence home passing through many tribes and nations of Indians at that time inhabiting that vast southwestern region.

"Mr. Cutbirth was a man of little or no knowledge of letters and consequently kept no formal or written account of this or any other of his hunting or exploring trips and no doubt without a thought of their ever being of any interest or even curiosity to any personas - before Daniel Boone discovered Kentucky for John Stuart was one of the party with Cutbirth on this trip and the same John Stuart was with Boone in this first discovery of Kentucky - as stated by my Father and also by Boone in his own narative of his first discovery of Kentucky.

Mr. Cutbirth left Rowan County soon after his return from this long trip with his family and removed to New River in the now County of Ashe about four miles above the Old Fields - where he lived during the war of the Revolution and from whence he made his trip with Daniel Boone to Kentucky and other places.

My Mother was born in Rowan - He was most ashuredly a very great hunter - woodsman and pioneer - a man of Strong mind and body- a man reserved in conversation not at all disposed to be communicative. I have verry often heard my Mother say that her Father talked verry little except he met with some old acquaintance or associate with him in his hunting or excursions into the wilderness and that on such occasions as that he would sit up all night - or on religious matters or the Scriptures- with such of his old acquaintances- and that was the way his family learned most they got from him of his extraordinary excursions into the Wilderness - and like other incidents - that he was a man of ireprochable character and undoubted varacity.

My GrandMother his wife was a niece of Daniel Boone's and consiquently they - Boone and Cutbirth - were great friends and associates - and had very much the same dispositions of mind and habits ect. ect.

"I have thought it might not be unacceptable to you to make these statements relating tomy ancestor whose true character and fame as a pioneer - if it could be correctly ascertained - would be second to no one living or dec'd except perhaps Daniel Boone."

"I will take occasion to say that Capt. William Riddle with two of his Tory associates was hung by order of Col. Cleveland a the place near the spot whear the New Court House now stands - that this is a fact you need not have a single shadow of doubt of as I have heard it from very many old persons that were eye witnesses to it - of both men and woman - of the highest respectability and was buryed in this vicinity. My very esteemed old freind Alexander Gilbreath, Jr. who is still living and resides in six miles of this place - was the officer of the Guard - at the Execuation of Capt. Riddle and his two companions and can point out the spot whear they were hung - and buryed.

Most Respectfully
Your true friend
James Calloway

"Ben" Call was a millwright who owned and operated a water-powered sawmill and grain mill. He built mills for other people. Laura Call was aked by one of her grandchildren why the Calls sometimes married their cousins. Her reply was, "To keep the wealth in the Call family."

Benjamin Franklin Call's father was James Martin Call (1823-1902). His mother was Emily Call (1827-1918). James and Emily had nine children. They were: Mary Anngenetta, America Elizabeth, Martha Caroline, David Elkanah, Jane Fidelier, Jonathan Silvester, Benjamin Franklin, Acenath Clementine, and Matilda Eveline.

Isaac Call's father was Daniel Call, Sr., born January 23, 1761 died May 21, 1845. He was married to Margaret Smith on 16 February, 1791, at the Forks of the Yadkin in Rowan County. They had three boys born in Rowan County before they moved to Wilkes. They were: Daniel, Jr., Isaac, and David. They settled on a plantation five miles east of Wilkesboro near the Wilkes County race track. Many members of the family are buried in the cemetery near the old homesite.

THE CALLOWAY FAMILY

It often happens in many towns and counties where prominent families existed previously, their names are no longr heard. Their memory is often forgotten and engulfed by time. Such is the case in the name of the Calloway family, a member of which was Dr. James Calloway and family which lived in Wilkes County for many years.

To begin with the history of the Calloways, it should be said that they migrated from Virginia to Ashe as early as 1740. They located on the [illegible] New River about 1712. He was a captain in the French and Indian War and was a great friend of Daniel Boone and went with him from North Carolina to Kentucky. Some of the Calloway's followed Boone into Missouri. Captain Thomas Calloway's grave is marked by a long, slim stone, probably six to eight feet long, with the date of his death on it. It was supposed to be the stone that marked Daniel Boone's camps and was treasured by Daniel Boone as a result of the fact that he found it unexpectedly when he killed a deer that fell across the stone close to the Calloway's home.

Elisah Calloway married Mary Cuthbert in 1760. She was a niece of Daniel Boone's. Elisah Calloway came from Virginia early in the 18th century. As stated before, he settled on the south fork of the New River and was my great-great-grandfather.

Eligah Calloway, who was my great-grandfather, built in the same general area of the New River. He built the first brick house which had glass windows in Ashe County and had eleven children including his son James Calloway, around whom this story is being written. He was born at the old home place in 1806. He died in 1878 in his 72nd year. Dr. Calloway was educated in the schools such as existed at that time close to his home. He was studious and had a very receptive mind. He was sent to the N.C. State Senate in 1820, 1830 and 1834. He was 21 years of age when first elected to the Senate. It is interesting to note that there were Calloways from Ashe County in the State House or Senate continuously from 1800 to 1850. There have been other members related to the family in these bodies since that time.

Early in the 1830's, James Calloway was admitted to the University of Pennsylvania as a medical student. At that time, it only took two years to finish the course. It has been said that he attended some lectures also at the Jefferson Medical College. I have instruments that Dr. Calloway used with ebony handles which were used in the pre-aseptic and anitseptic days in surgery; of these I am very proud.

In 1835, Dr. Calloway married Mary Carmichael, daughter of Captain Abner Carmichael of Wilkes County and a sister of L.B. Carmichael, a man familiar to the bar in this judicial district and in the legislature of North Carolina. To this marriage there were four children: Mary Virginia, Frances Caroline, Abner Sydenham and Mary. All of these children were well educated with college degrees and married well. Abner was a graduate of the University of North Carolina and fought all the way through the Civil War, first as a lieutenant and then as a captain. Mary Carmichael Calloway, his wife, died in 1846.

In 1852 Dr. Calloway married Annie Perry Yeakle of Hagerstown, Maryland and Philadelphia. When the doctor met her she was visiting with an aunt in Ashe County. She was a student at Peace College in Raleigh. To this couple were born six children: Harriet Hoge, Elizabeth Charlotte, Annie Yeakle, Ruth Bowie, Jane Alice and a baby who died in infancy. All man. He practiced in the horse and buggy days and covered seven counties extending into Virginia. He was gone at times for several days being held up frequently by swollen streams which kept him in the house of patients overnight or for several days. Dr. Calloway was the only regularly bred physician in the whole country between Statesville, N.C. and Wytheville, V.A. He was violently opposed to secession when the Civil War developed, but in 1861 he was elected to the convention by Governor Vance and voted for the ordinance of seccession and strenously supported it during the war.

Dr. Calloway was a great student of the men and participants of the Revolutionary War and gave a great deal of help to the soldiers of the revolution and Civil War in working out their pensions. He had a great deal of correspondence with Governor Vance regarding the state and about the soldiers and other matters. Although at one time he was said to control more votes than any man in the county, he took very little interest in politics after the war and suffered many set backs and had many problems as a resutl of legislation passed following the Civil War.

He was a large land owner in Wilkes and Ashe County as well as in Kansas. As he had great interest west of the Mississippi River, he moved to Kansas where he owned extensive areas of real estate in 1870. His health failed him out there and he came home and died in about three years, in a new home which he built in Wilkesboro, about 1875, and is the place in which I was raised.

He was responsible for bringing the Siamese Twins to Wilkes County which is explained in detail in The Two, by Irving and Amy Wallace written about 1875. This book covers their lives and travels as showmen all over the world.

According to a long statement concerning Dr. Calloway in the Wilkesboro Witness paper and the Raleigh Observer, the following statement was made at its end:

"The Common judgement of those who knew Dr. Calloway well is that he was a man of extraordinary natural strength of mind, sharpened and improved by extensuve professional and business association and of an inflexible purpose in the prosecution of his aims. He had collected a vast amount of traditionary matters connected with the war of the revolution and hence was generally interested in such subjects, and especially useful to those entitled to pensions as soldiers, and all descendants. He was thirty years of his life, a member of the Episcopal Church which he helped build and organize in Wilkesboro. The administrations in his sick room during his long and painful illness by the church gave him the greatest comfort."

THE FAMILY OF CLAUDE C. FAW, Sr.

The earliest descendant of our branch of the Faw family was Jacob Faw (Pfau), who was born in Basel, Switzerland in 1723. Jacob was a saddler by trade. Early in his life he married Catherine Disslin and had four children, three girls and one boy. In 1749 due to the economic conditions of their country, they left Switzerland and came to America by way of Holland and England. The youngest daughter, Magdalene, died while the family waited on the ship in London for a favorable breeze. Jacob and his family arrived in America in the latter part of 1749 after a nine week voyage and eventually settled around Frederick County, Maryland with other Swiss families. In 1756, Catherine died, unable to withstand the hardships of the new world. That same year Jacob remarried Anna Magdalene Yount (Yunt) another Swiss emigrant who came to America in 1752. She cared for Jacob's existing children and raised three of her own including Jacob Faw, II born in 1765 who was the ancestor of my grandfather, Claude C. Faw. In 1778, Jacob Faw, I sold his tract of 100 acres in Maryland to his son Abraham. Abraham later became a very prominent homebuilder in Alexandria, Virginia, a member of the Maryland legislature and a candidate from his district to the first U.S. Congress. Jacob, I moved to Stokes County in North Carolina, which is now Forsyth County. According to the tax lists he died there around 1790.

Jacob, II married a daughter of Rudy Hyre of Stokes County and moved to Ashe County in 1806. He bought some land along the south fork of the New River and raised a large family. One of his sons was Absalom, who though born and reared in Ashe County, migrated to Wilkes County and married Caroline Whittington. They lived at Millers Creek and also raised a large family. Details of his life are sketchy, but according to reports he was thrown from a wagon and killed around 1867. One of his sons was Thomas who also settled in the Millers Creek area where he kept a general store and post office. He married Elizabeth Rash and had three children; Thad who died at a young age, Callie Faw Caudill, and my grandfather, Claude C. Faw. My grandfather was born September 17, 1887 and reared in the Millers Creek community and later attended Moravian Falls Academy. He then taught school for thirteen years from 1905 to 1919. He is still remembered by some of the residents of Millers Creek as a wonderful teacher. He married Edna McLean in 1915 and they raised five children. These children are: Mrs. Elizabeth Faw Lewis of Farmington, Connecticut, Mrs. Margaret Faw Fonvielle of Wilmington, N.C., Mr. Claude C. Faw, of North Wilkesboro, Mrs. Corinne Faw Sink of North Wilkesboro and Mr. Thomas Faw of Mt. Airy, N.C.

My grandfather was always interested in education even after his teaching career. He served as chairman of the Wilkes County Board of Education from July 9, 1919 to October 1, 1928. Later in the 1950's he served for four years as a trustee for the then Appalachian State Teachers College in Boone, N.C. He was also keenly interested in politics and served for several years on the State Democratic Executive committee where he was helpful in improving the roads of Wilkes County. In addition to all of the mentioned he helped found Faw Insurance Agency, Inc. in 1924. This independent insurance agency has been in business continuously ever since and is now managed by my father, Claude C. Faw, Jr. Claude C. Faw died of a heart attack on October 24, 1960 and is buried in a small church cemetery in Millers Creek that his father helped found. He was remembered in newspaper articles of that time as a great friend of education and good businessman. His greatest legacy however is the number of people in the Millers Creek community and Wilkes County in general who still remember him today.

JACOB PFAU (FAW) and DESCENDANTS

The name FAW is not widely known in this country. Most likely there are fewer than 500 families having that name in the entire U.S.A. Where did the name come from and why are so many members of the family living in Wilkes County?

Those of us who are interested in the answers to these questions are indebted to two cousins, Amy and Linda Faw, of Chillicothe, Illinois. In 1928 they came to North Carolina and started a search which was to occupy most of their spare time for many years to come. They invaded trunks and attics, interviewed many older relatives, and corresponded with "cousins" all over the country. The following brief summary of Faw history is based almost entirely on the work of these people.

Jacob Pfau was born in 1723 in Basel, Switzerland. He was a saddler by trade. He was married to Catherine Disslin. In 1749 he left Switzerland with his wife, Catherine, and four children to seek the good life in America. They made their way down the Rhine and across the channel to England. While waiting there for passage to the new world, their youngest daughter, Magdalena, died of small pox. The child was buried on land just before they set sail. After a long and arduous voyage, they finally landed in Maryland and were safely settled near Frederickstown by the spring of Tuckerdale community January 1885 and is buried in the Bauguess cemetery. In Sept. after her death the settlement of Jacob's estate was initiated in Wilkes court by Hiram John Estep, son of Berry G. Estep of Alleghany Co.

To Jacob and Nancy were born the following children: William M. (25 Sept 1816 — 3 Mar 1902), married Elizabeth Eastridge; Berry G. (6 Oct 1820 — Jan 1911) married first Elvira Smithy 10 Oct 1838, second Louisa Edwards, third Mrs. Ruth Crouse Oct. 1893; Elizabeth (5 Apr 1823 — 27 Aug 1895) married James H. Hayes 8 Feb 1843; Samuel (13 Oct 1828-1913) married first Temperance Marlow, 5 Mar 1850, second Mary J. Hunter; Rhoda Jane (1 Dec 1830 — 18 Sept 1900) married first Rev. William Tedder 11 Feb 1846, second Rev. William Chappel; Rudisil (Rudy) (1832-1850) married Sarah A. Johnson 21 June 1852; Hardy (21 Feb 1834 — 1 July 1863) married Louisa Malissa Ball 1855; Mary (1836-1859) married Harold Hayes 1856; Doctor Calloway (11 Feb 1840 — 3 Dec 1872) married Amanda Duncan 23 Feb. 1858.

WILLIAM M. ESTEP FAMILY 531

William M. Estep, son of Jacob and Nancy Moore Estep, was born 25 September 1816 and grew up on Brushy Mountain in Wilkes County; married Elizabeth Eastridge, daughter of Nathan and Elizabeth Eastride in 1837.

Their first two children were born on the Brushies. Malinda born 12 Aug. 1838 and Burrell Harrison born 9 June 1840. They then moved to Ashe Co. where Granville Alexander was born 1 July 1843.

In the spring of 1844 the couple set out in a two-wheeled, ox-drawn cart on a move to Ky. Near Cumberland Gap, Lee County, Va. the vehicle broke down, and William decided to remain there for that year and make a crop.

In Lee Co. Samuel was born 28 September 1845, and Jacob Nathan born 18 Jan. 1848.

Sometime thereafter, William moved his family into Claiborne Co., Tenn. In 1855 he purchased a 100 acre farm which was to be the family home for almost half a century. In Tenn. Nancy Evaline born 15 Dec. 1849; Martha I. born 1 Dec. 1851; Mary E. born 15 Oct. 1852; Lucy A. born 6 June 1854; William born 1 March 1857; John A. born 12 May 1862; James Brownlow born 5 Aug. 1865.

In 1900, William and Elizabeth, by now in their 80's and feeble, were living with son Burrell. Later they moved to Lee Co., Va. and lived with son Granville. There Elizabeth died 6 Feb. 1902 and William died 3 March 1902.

Granville and Burrell served in the Union Army. William, John, and Mary Estep Brown moved to Whitley Co., Ky, then to Oklahoma, where they were joined by James Brownlow. In later years, Evaline and husband James Campbell, a Baptist minister, also settled in Oklahoma. John moved to Texas about 1920.

THE FAW FAMILY 532

Elijah Calloway, a son of Captain Tom Calloway, married Mary Cutbirth, a grand niece of the great explorer, Daniel Boone. Two of the daughters of Elijah and Mary Calloway married into the Faw family. John Faw married Nancy Calloway, and Jacob III married Mary Calloway. Therefore, those Faws who descended from John or Jacob III can trace their ancestry back to Squire Boone, the father of Daniel Boone, and to seventeenth century England. When he died, Jacob II was buried in the Calloway cemetery situated very near the point at which highway 163 crosses the south fork of New River. The stone which marks his grave is adjacent to the famous field stone shaft which bears the initials, TC, carved by Daniel Boone. This shaft marks the spot where Captain Tom Calloway was buried in his dugout canoe in the year 1800.

It is not known exactly who or how many of the Faw descendants, migrated from Ashe County to Wilkes, but some of those who did are listed here. Absolom Faw, the fifth son of Jacob II, moved to Wilkes County and married Caroline Whittington. He was living in Reddies River Township when the 1860 census was taken. He had six sons and one daughter. One of his sons, Thomas, lived at Millers Creek, and was the father of Claude C. Faw.

Benjamin Faw was the son of John and the grandson of Jacob II. He lived in Ashe County near the ancestral home on New River. One day while he was unhitching a team of work oxen from a wagon, one of the oxen struck at a worrisome dog and accidently caught Uncle Ben in the abdomen with his horn, disemboweling him. This tragic event is well remembered by many people of Ashe County. Ben's son, Emmet, lived in North Wilkesboro where he operated a general store at the head of Trogdon Street for many years. (One of the fond memories of this writer's childhood when he lived on Trogdon Street is the frequest visits to "cousin" Emmet's store.)

Martin Faw, born November 25, 1821, was the oldest son of Jacob III. He married Matilda Kilby and most likely lived in Wilkes. His oldest son, William Harrison Faw, born in 1846, was the father of Iredell Faw who lived on Reddies River. Iredell was the father of nine children, all of whom settled in Wilkes County. These Faw descendants were: Ruth (m. Fred Brown), Ila (m. Ray Pierce), Emily (m. Louis Adams), Ben, Joseph, Garfield, Ancil, May (m. Sylvian Kilby), and Graham.

Martin's second son, Levi, had two sons: Ham and Zeb. Ham lived near Piney Ridge Baptist Church on the road to Jefferson, just south of the jumping-off place. He had two sons, Thurman and Gurney, both of whom still live near Millers Creek. Thurman is the father of J.C. Faw, head of Lowes Food Stores, Edgar and Ozelle who married Pete Williams and lives next door to her father.

John Wesley Faw, the third son of Martin, had three sons and one daughter, all of whom lived on Reddies River. They are: Jonathon, Ada Faw Hoffman, Millard, Fillmore, and Charles.

Jacob Judson, the fourth son of Martin married Luvina Bare and lived near Millers Creek. Jacob and Luvina had seventeen children: Monroe, Doley, Oscar, Carrie (McGlamery), Minnie (Nichols), Chal, Haggie, Krumal, William, John, Lester, Vestal, Edward, Hattie (Pierce), Chessie, Mattie (Grittie), and Rena (Alsby). Many of the Faws of Wilkes County can trace their ancestry to this family.

Henry Judson Faw was the son of Reuben Coffey Faw and the grandson of Jacob Faw III. He spent a large part of his life in Wilkes and is buried in the cemetery at Center Baptist Church. His oldest son, Reuben Estel,was a pioneer well driller, having owned and operated one of the first well drill

HUSBAND - Elijah Wilcoxson

Info from the book "Wilcoxson and Allied Families" by Wulfeck pg 67. Both Elijah and Charlotte are buried in the Wilcoxen cemetery near Bryant, Fulton Co. IL. On his tombstone south east of Lewistown, IL were inscribed the dates and statement "He was nephew of Daniel Boone" Which was wrong-GLT. He was related but as a great nephew as his grandmother was a sister to Daniel Boone. Pictures of both tombstones are on file at DAR national headquarters. Fulton Co. History and Atlas has a picture of his farm and also a write up on his wife after his death. Also have DAR tribute to Charlotte.

This family seems to have used the spelling of Willcockson quite a lot.

Have a notice from Liverpool Twp, Fulton Co. IL dated Sep 25, 1976 dedicating a grave marker for Charlotte Calloway Willcockson by the DAR Thomas Walters Chapter of Fulton Co. IL. This paper has a pedigree chart of John Willcockson and Sarah Boone and children: Elizabeth Willcockson who md Benjamin Cutbirth and had daughter Mary Cutbirth who married Elijah Calloway and his father was listed as Thomas Calloway Sr. and wife Mary Baker. (All Calloway researchers say Elijah's father was Thomas Jr and mother Jude Sander Farrah Calloway.)
This article was also listed in the Callaway Journal Vol 11 1977 pg 28-29 that has picture of grave marker they erected for Charlotte and also a picture of Charlotte. Here the name always written as Willcockson which some did use that spelling.

I have corresponded with descendants of this line and have DAR papers that Ruth Shields went into DAR on and the info from that.

Elijah farmed in Estill Co., KY from 1815 to 1830 when they moved to Fulton Co. Ill. where they lived in a log cabin until 1837. He was a rifleman of the North Carolina Militia in the War of 1812 and a Captain in the Black Hawk war. First as Lieut. then Captain. Also in Illinois Volunteers 1831-1832 with Lincoln.

His will was dated 1 May 1852 in Fulton Co. Il and probated 13 Jul 1860. Death was attended by 12 children and he had 114 descendants. He was age 71 years of age at the time of his death.

Elizabeth b. 1812 was said to be his daughter but in her info she stated she was the daughter of Squire Wilcoxson and born 1800 so have listed her with him. Will need to recheck this info. She md 1st Joseph Allen and 2nd Ben. Robuck.

Ray who had come a year earlier, from North Carolina, where he had served during the civil war as a confederate soldier in Co. B, 6th NC Cavalry. It has been an ideal married life all these long 38 years. Very rare has been the devotion of this childless couple to each other. His gentleness and chivalry toward her during her long illness is characteristic of the impetuous and daring young cavalryman who courted death for the land of his love on an hundred southern battlefieds. --- The bravest are the gentlest, The tender are the true. --- The editor will remembers Anna Adeline Wilcoxen as a girl of surpassing beauty in person and character -- the dark-eyed and rosy-cheeked queen of her father's stately and hospitable home. Happy beyond telling were the childhood visits this to typical old sourthern mansion that seemed transplanted with its kindly master and mistress and noble sons and daughters from the sunny south to the wilds of Illinois. In the long years since then this editor has gloried in the friendship of this noble woman and her kindred. Faithful unto death to every duty as daughter, wife, mother and neighbor she went to her burial, yesterday, midst reverent grief of young and old who knew her. Rev. Champaign, Ill. receiving a B.S. degree in Music Education in 1959, and her Masters at University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo. in 1973.

She married Joseph Hill Stanley in 1959 (d. 1976). They had two children, Philip Michael, 02 Oct., 1963, and Rachel Ann b. 02 June, 1966. They were divorced in 1969. She married Allen Arnold White Ph.D, a professor at the University of Missouri, who taught Biochemistry. Ann taught music part-time. One of Ann's most pleasant childhood experiences was when she visited Mabel and Don Wilson on their ranch in Norman, Okla. She remembers being awakened in the middle of the night to see a calf being born. This was quite an experience for a child from the city to see! She played the violin for 25 years and was a winner in the fall auditions of the Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago in February of 1955 and soloed with the orchestra. She played the violin for the next 25 years, both for pleasure and professionally. In 1971, Ann injured her left hand and it never healed completely. She put away the violin at this point, never to play it again.

WIDEROE, ANN MILLICENT

F860

Ann Millicent Wideroe was born 10 June, 1938 in Chicago, Ill. She is the daughter of Zula Monetta Zeigler (1900-1960) and Thomas Eugenes Wideroe (1901-1980). She attended schools in Chicago and attended Eastman School of Music and University of Illinois, Champaign, Ill. receiving a B.S. degree in Music Education in 1959, and her Masters at University of Missouri, Columbia, Mo. in 1973.

She married Joseph Hill Stanley in 1959 (d. 1976). They had two children, Philip Michael, 02 Oct., 1963, and Rachel Ann b. 02 June, 1966. They were divorced in 1969. She married Allen Arnold White Ph.D, a professor at the University of Missouri, who taught Biochemistry. Ann taught music part-time. One of Ann's most pleasant childhood experiences was when she visited Mabel and Don Wilson on their ranch in Norman, Okla. She remembers being awakened in the middle of the night to see a calf being born. This was quite an experience for a child from the city to see! She played the violin for 25 years and was a winner in the fall auditions of the Youth Orchestra of Greater Chicago in February of 1955 and soloed with the orchestra. She played the violin for the next 25 years, both for pleasure and professionally. In 1971, Ann injured her left hand and it never healed completely. She put away the violin at this point, never to play it again.

HUGHES, MIMA ELIZABETH

Mima Hughes, daughter of Charles and Mattie Hughes, was born March 29, 1889.

She attended Table Grove Grade School and graduated from Table Grove High School in 1907. She continued her education for two years at Lombard College, 1907-1909, where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority.

Due to poor health, she withdrew from Lombard and tried to take nurses' training at St. Francis Hospital in Macomb. Her health would not allow her to continue nurses' training, so she worked as a technician in Bacon and Lemaster Clinic in Macomb for a few months. Her health forced her to return to Table Grove, where she lived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Perry for several years.

In 1933, Mima's mother's three cousins, Wesley, Sophia, and Jane Wonder from Hanna City, Illinois, invited her to live with them as a companion and helper.

She continued living with them until they were all deceased, when she inherited their home and she continued living in Hanna City.

When a girl, Mima joined the Table Grove Universalist Church, then transferred and held her membership in the Table Grove Community Church when it was organized.

While in Hanna City, she attended and became an active worker in the Methodist Church for years, serving as a teacher of a young boys Sunday School Class.

In spite of her painful arthritic condition, Mima's hobby was travelling. With the help in 1904.

Walter continued the family tradition of attending Lombard College, spending two years there.

While at Lombard, Walter was a member of Phi Delta Theta Fraternity.

In the fall of 1906, he entered the University of Illinois where he graduated with the Class of 1910 with a B.S. in Mechanic Engineering. After graduating from the University, Walter worked in Chicago until late in 1913. After the death of his father, he and his mother moved to California for his mother's health.

In California, they lived in Pasadena, where Walter was a manufacturer's representative in Los Angeles from 1913 to 1919.

In 1919, he returned to Chicago, where he joined International Filters Company as an engineer in charge of the hydraulic mechanical and electrical development until 1950 when the company changed its name to Infilar, Inc. and moved its general office to Tucson, Arizona. Walter moved to Tucson with the company but retired in 1951.

Walter was married to Gladys Ann Soldwell on September 29, 1914.

Walter will be 99 years old November 24, 1985.

Robert J. and Venus were united in marriage on February 24, 1904 in Liverpool Township at the home of L.W. Potts by the Rev. McFarland. Everett Arnett and Emma McFarland witnessed their marriage.

To this union were born ten children – Opal (deceased), Lucille (Motsinger-Bower), Frank, Carl, Mary (Orendorff-Hammond), Wilma (Duncan), Fern (Butler), Anna (Beadles), Robert, Jr., and David (deceased).

R.J. was always interested in machinery. Before he was married he walked four miles every morning to fire up the engine for a saw mill east of Lewistown on the Deems Farm. After working all day he would bank his fire and walk the four miles home. This interest carried on throughout his life.

After their marriage they went to Peoria where R.J. was a street car conductor. They then moved to Bloomington where he was an engineer on the Chicago and Alton railroad, making most of his runs between Bloomington and Alton, and to Chicago. He was always interested in machinery so, after seven years, they moved back to Lewistown where he, his father and Grandfather Bordner ran threshing and clover-hulling equipment. This he carried on for the next fifty years or more.

During this same time they were also farming, purchasing their first farm in 1914. They kept adding to this different tracts of land until they owned six hundred acres total. During this time they also leased land from several neighbors and farmed in Thompson Lake Drainage District for twenty-seven years, until it was sold to Norris Grain Company.

Venus was a good cook and manager in the home. Each child did their share of work as they grew up. She raised garden, raised chickens, made butter, cheese, buttermilk and had a route where she delivered her produce in Lewistown, Bryant, St. David and Canton. During the depression that money helped put the children through school. There was always a hired man or two to cook and wash for and threshing and haying crews to cook for. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, where she was a Sunday School teacher and organist for many years. She was a member of the New Hope Sew and So Club and Tourist Club. She was Worthy Matron of Lewistown OES and a piano teacher for several years.

R.J. was a member of the United Methodist Church, a sixty-nine year member of Masonic Lodge #104, Scottish Rite, Mohammed Shrine, and Fulton County Farm Bureau. He was a commissioner of West Liverpool Drainage District and member of the Bethel School Board for many years. He was an avid trap-shoot enthusiast, winning many awards and was an honorary member of several gun clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Hummel always had time to feed a few more mouths when their city nieces

According to family tradition the Humphrey family of Wales moved to North Ireland where David Humphrey (b. ca 1720; d. 1793) married Agnes Houston (b. ca 1722-25; d. 1758) and had two sons, George and Robert. They came to America ca 1750. Here they had John (m. Elizabeth McKee) and David, Jr. (m. 1. Nancy Clark and 2. Mrs. Mary Brown). The older son George married 1. Jane Wilson and 2. Elizabeth Jolly, from whom I am descended. The second child, Robert married Martha Alexander.

David Humphrey's first wife died and about 1760 he married Jean Miller. There were three children from this marriage: William (never m.), Jean (m. Oliver Anderson), and Ann (m. John McChestney).

David Humphrey, the immigrant, was a farmer and an Indian Trader. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He and his wives are buried in Mercersburg, Pa.

My ancestor George Humphrey, Sr. (1749-1834), had four children by his first wife, Jane Wilson (m. 1775): Agnes (m. William McMinn), Alexander (unmarried), David (m. Elizabeth Ramsey), and Elizabeth (m. Joseph McCaughey). The second wife, Elizand nephews came to spend summers with them. No one had fancy clothes but always had well balanced meals three times a day and Mother always had to have dessert for dinner and evening meals. We were all taught cleanliness (Mother's quote – "it's no disgrace to be poor, but it is to be dirty"), honest and politeness.

Both R.J. and Venus lived long lives. He was ninety-two at his death and she ninety-one. Besides being parents of ten children, they were, at their deaths, grandparents of nineteen grandchildren, great-grandparents of fifty-five and great-great-grandparents of one.

HUSBAND - Elijah Calloway Wilcoxson

Pg 96 of "Wilcoxson and Allied Families". Also info on wifes family in Fulton Co. History (1988) pg 294.

Major E. Callaway Wilcoxson was a farmer and managed a mill in Fulton Co. II. He had an accident in which his thigh was broken and died from the effects.

He had 14 children and 4 died in infancy so since no names are available will only list 10 of the children.

Alice Stipak internet info listed 4 children as died as infant and listed same as in Wilcoxson book.

Find A Grave internet site listed Elijah birth and death and places. Pic of him close to elderly, hard to tell, pic of his spiral grave marker. Elijah was 4th of 15 children of Capt Elijah Wilcoxen 1789-1860 and Charlotte Calloway 1792-1875. who married 21 Nov 1811 at Ashe Co. NC. Some records show Elijah died 22 Jan 1890 but it is believe that the 1872 date is correct as grave marker also says 1872. Most of Fulton Co Il records spell his surname as Wilcoxen but his grave marker says Willcockson so that is way it is listed in Find A Grave. He married Prudence putman 1820-1882 on 22 Sep 1836 at Fulton Co. IL. Parents of 15 children which are all listed here with birth and death dates. (order of birth on last 2 are uncertain. One place he has listed the 15 and another place 7 are listed and he has listed 11 siblings all w/b & d dates. The picture is believe to be of Elijah and his wife but all you see is her arm. In her Find A grave site she is standing but can't tell if her arm is on his shoulder or not.

WIFE - Prudence Putman

Pg 96 of "Wilcoxson and Allied Families". Also info on her family in Fulton Co. History (1988) pg 294.

She had 14 children and 4 died in infancy so since no names are available will only list 10 of the children.

Find A Grave listed her birth and death dates and places. Pic of her timing not sure. Also pic of her gravemarker the name has been spelled Willcockson, which was usually Wilcoxen in Fulton Co. records. Spouse Elijah Calloway Willcockson 1817-1872 an she listed 7 of the 15 that husband listed.

There was also a Lucinda Willcoxen said to be wife of Redding P. Wilcoxen, Father James Morgan and mother Mary Orwig b. Ohio 21 Dec 1847 and died 8 Oct 1936 at age 88-9-16. Not sure if there was another Redding or was only one that I know of. This info from Salem/Wilcoxen cemetery records.

Wonder if first three were triplets as all had same birth and death dates?
Also they have George Lee b 1873-1943 then another George Lee b 1874 and died 1858 so think they have the dates of last one turned around and b. 1858 and d. 1874, would make more sense then to have died before he was born.

Kentucky, USA

Death: Jan. 22, 1872

Elijah Calloway Willcockson was the fourth of fifteen known children of Capt. Elijah Wilcoxen (1789-1860) and Charlotte Calloway (1792-1875), who married on 21 Nov 1811 at Ashe County, North Carolina.

Some records show Elijah died 22 Jan 1890; but it is believed that the 1872 death date is correct and his grave marker says 1872. Most Fulton County, Illinois records spell his surname as Wilcoxen, but his grave marker says Willcockson, so I will list it that way.

Joseph Grover Putman, for he lived until 18 January 1897. Christina, his wife, lived to a ripe old age of 92 and died 27 July 1931. Charles Waufine Putman married 23 December 1884 Tommie Cornelia Keesee, daughter of Thomas J. Keesee and wife Emilie Michaux. Charlie Waufine Putman died 10 January 1922. Tommie Keesee Putman had died 3 September 1895. Joseph Grover Putman and wife Christina, Temperance Bordner Bass, James Farmer, Charlie Waufine Putman and wife Tommie are all buried in the Ovilla Methodist Cemetery, in Ellis County, Tx.

Each year at Christmas, the Bordner relatives in Fulton County, Ill. would ship a barrel of gifts to their kinfolks in Texas, fruit they had canned, and other home made items, and the Texas children looked forward eagerly to receiving their barrel of goodies from Illinois. To Christina Bordner Putman, Fulton County, Ill. always was remembered as a kind of "Garden of Eden".

PUTMAN, REDING

F649

Fulton County had not yet been established when young Reding Putman bought land there sight unseen from a land grant agent while living near Princeton in Gibson County, Indiana.

Reding, his wife Stacey Combs and their five young children, and his brothers Hazeal, Elijah and William and other members of the Combs and Holcomb families moved to Fulton County in December of 1822. Reding took up farming in the southeast quarter of section 2, and being the first settler in the area, Putman Township was named in his honor.

Fulton County was formed in 1823 and Hazeal Putman served on the first Grand Jury on April 16, 1824. Their brother William Putman was the first school teacher in Fulton County as he had been the first in Gibson County, Indiana.

Reding and Stacey Putman had two more children born in Fulton County; Robert in 1823 and Bennett in 1825.

On December 16, 1827 Stacey Combs Reding Putman died. Reding married Elizabeth Reed on 15 January 1829. Elizabeth was born in Kentucky on 15 January 1811. Reding and Elizabeth had two children born in Fulton County; Phoebe in 1830 and Reding in 1832.

Reding's brother William and their mother, Prudence Putman, went along on this journey. Hazeal remained in Fulton County where he died near Canton September 30, 1843. Reding's daughter Delilah had married John Rizley in 1834 and they too went to Arkansas. Prudence Putman married Elijah Wilcoxen and remained in Fulton County. James Daniel Putman and Bennett Putman went to Kansas, Robert Putman went to Iowa. George married Charlotte Crosthwaite in 1834 at Fiatt, Illinois and spent the rest of his life in Fulton County. Reding's other two children Robert and young Reding went to Arkansas with their parents.

Reding died in Fayetteville, Arkansas at his son Reding's home on September 9, 1865 at the age of 74. Phoebe died on May 11, 1884 just 3 days short of her 97th birthday.

Thus closed the saga of the first family of Putman Township in Fulton County.

PUTMAN, WILLIAM BYRNES, JR.

In another article I outlined the life of Reding Putman, namesake for Putman Township in Fulton County. This will follow Reding's line up through me and the present.

In 1836, Reding and his family left for the milder climes of Arkansas and settled near Prairie Grove in Washington County. There the family grew up. Young Reding, his son, became a doctor in the nearby city of Fayetteville. As the Civil War drew near, Arkansas was split on the issue of slavery. Reding senior had fougt for his country in both the War of 1812 in Indiana and the Black Hawk War in Illinois and felt strongly towards the Union. His Republican views didn't sit well with some others and in 1861 his house was burned to the ground by Confederate sympathizers. He then moved with his wife, Phoebe, to live with his son Reding and wife Elizabeth (Reed) in Fayetteville where he remained until his death in 1865.

PUTMAN, REDING

F649

Fulton County had not yet been established when young Reding Putman bought land there sight unseen from a land grant agent while living near Princeton in Gibson County, Indiana.

Reding, his wife Stacey Combs and their five young children, and his brothers Hazeal, Elijah and William and other members of the Combs and Holcomb families moved to Fulton County in December of 1822. Reding took up farming in the southeast quarter of section 2, and being the first settler in the area, Putman Township was named in his honor.

Fulton County was formed in 1823 and Hazeal Putman served on the first Grand Jury on April 16, 1824. Their brother William Putman was the first school teacher in Fulton County as he had been the first in Gibson County, Indiana.

Reding and Stacey Putman had two more children born in Fulton County; Robert in 1823 and Bennett in 1825.

On December 16, 1827, Stacey Combs Putman died at the young age of about 30, leaving Reding with their seven children. On February 21, 1829, Reding remarried to a widow, Phoebe Marsh Stelle who's first husband, Alexander Stelle had died a year earlier. Phoebe had six young children of her own. They had one more child themselves, Reding Putman II on September 12, 1930, bringing the number of children to fourteen.

In the Black Hawk War of 1832, Reding and Hazeal, both veterans of the War of 1812 at Tippicanoe in Indiana, enlisted in the company of Captain David Barnes. On May 1, 1832 Reding was seriously wounded in the defeat called Sillman's Run. A fellow soldier and friend from his early days in South Carolina, John Holcomb, paid $4.00 for boat passage to take Reding back to his home.

Reding never fully recovered from his wounds and he and Phoebe decided that a milder climate would be better. In early 1835, they obtained Bounty Lands and moved to Washington County, Arkansas near the present town of Prairie Grove in the nor-

In another article I outlined the life of Reding Putman, namesake for Putman Township in Fulton County. This will follow Reding's line up through me and the present.

In 1836, Reding and his family left for the milder climes of Arkansas and settled near Prairie Grove in Washington County. There the family grew up. Young Reding, his son, became a doctor in the nearby city of Fayetteville. As the Civil War drew near, Arkansas was split on the issue of slavery. Reding senior had fougt for his country in both the War of 1812 in Indiana and the Black Hawk War in Illinois and felt strongly towards the Union. His Republican views didn't sit well with some others and in 1861 his house was burned to the ground by Confederate sympathizers. He then moved with his wife, Phoebe, to live with his son Reding and wife Elizabeth (Reed) in Fayetteville where he remained until his death in 1865.

Reding Putman Junior tended to the wounded of both sides as the Civil War raged through the area. Dr. Putman said no matter what the color of the uniform, the color of the blood was the same. Reding raised four children. Two daughters married but had no children and a son, Robert, died at 19. It looked like the Putman line would stop, but 16 years after they were married, Leigh Reding Putman was born.

Leigh Reding Putman had 5 children, including my father. He was in the lumber business in Fayetteville. He became head of the American Lumber Association and the family moved first to New Orleans and then to Chicago in the 1920s. All 5 children graduated from Northwestern University. My father, William Byrnes Putman remained there and married Meda Sharon of Carrollton, Illinois who was his college sweetheart. I was born in Evanston in 1937. Dad was transferred to New York and we lived in Greenwich, Connecticut where I grew up and where my parents still live today.

I went to Yale University and then New

PUTT, WILLIAM T. FAMILY

My report begins in Harrison County, near Lima, Ohio – 1856, during the Civil War period. John and Elizabeth Hefling, with their children – William, Martin, John, Clarkson, Robert, Mary and 10-year old Martha Elizabeth – moved to Illinois, to farmland in Fulton County, near Astoria. When Martha Elizabeth was twenty, she met a young school teacher from Woodland Township, near Summum, – William T. Newberry, date of birth June 21, 1847, enlisted as a private, Company B, 132nd Illinois Infantry, in the Civil War. They were married September 8, 1867, and after a while they moved to Lewistown, where they lived in a big two-story frame house, with a big garden and a big apple orchard, and raised a big family – Dora Alice, Walter Gray, George Edgar, Martha Elizabeth, Temperance May and Theresa Belle. For more than 40 years William T. Newberry was a teacher in Fulton County Schools. Any other records of the Newberry family are incomplete in my searching; a brother was Dr. G.W. Newberry of Smithfield; his daughter Lorena B. Newberry Galloway, well known for her religious and patriotic writing, and a sister, Eliza B. Newberry Carter, Monroe, Nebraska.

William T. Putt was born July 27, 1867 in Bernadotte Township; his parents were Charles A. Putt and Phoebe Ann Naylor Putt; family records show three sisters – Lulu, Etta, Lottie, and a brother James Frank, his daughter Winifred Putt Toland, Macomb, Illinois. William T. Putt was first married to Eva May Pulling, September 27, 1892; she died of typhoid fever. They had two sons – Lee Roy and Lewis Edgar (deceased); members of their families live now in the Moline-Rock Island vicinity. On November 18, 1906 William T. Putt was married to Theresa Belle Newberry Putt. William T. Putt was well known around Fulton County – a mechanic, a plumber, built and repaired windmills, whatever work he could find, and sometimes worked for "Thanks Billy", for he was a good friend and neighbor.

He was crippled in childhood by an accident to his knee, but he never let this keep

Redding P. Willcoxen

Died in Lamar, Mo., Dec. 8, leaving his widow and a large family of children. The remains were brought to his old home in Liverpool tp. Funeral services were held at Salem church at 11 a. m. Thursday, with burial in old Salem cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. B. Y. George of Elmwood in the presence of a large assemblage of Mr. Willcoxen's relatives and neighbors. Mr. Willcoxen was born on the old home farm, Aug. 29, 1838, a son to Elijah Calloway Willcoxen and Prudence Putman-Willcoxen, both of Kentucky, and they come to Liverpool tp. in 1830. Redding was married, May 8, 1862, to Miss Amanda Stout, who died at the age of 31, leaving four children—Lee (who died about 1½ years ago), Anna, (Mrs. Ney Willcoxen), Andrew J. and Noah C. Dec. 22, 1873, he was again married, this time to Miss Lucinda, daughter to James Morgan. To them were born eight children—Mrs. Viola Berry, Wm. Wade, Redding Q., Jesse D., Mrs. Melinda Wilson, James Oliver, Bert, Jerry—all living.

On his first marriage Redding settled upon his father's old homestead, and on the death of the latter bought the farm of 219 acres, on which had been built a noble brick mansion, and here he continned to reside until his removal to Missouri some four years ago.

Deceased was a sober, industrious and strictly honorable and generous man in all his dealings. He was ever high-mined, standing for the best things in public and social life. He was generous in his support of churches, temperance, good schools. He was the ideal husband, father, neighbor and citizen, an honor to the ancient and revered Willcoxen and Calloway names—worthy descendants of Daniel Boone and the Calloways of Kentucky. And Redding P. Willcoxen's whole life from childhood to his death reflected honor upon his famous, heroic ancestors.

And so has passed away another

Wonder if first three were triplets as all had same birth and death dates?
Also they have George Lee b 1873-1943 then another George Lee b 1874 and died 1858 so think they have the dates of last one turned around and b. 1858 and d. 1874, would make more sense then to have died before he was born.

CHILD 9 - George Lee Shields

This birth and death dates maybe turned around as can't die before hi is born. Believe born 1858 and d. 1874 would make more sense. But this is the way it was listed in both mother and fathers find a grave site.

Find a Grave internet site listed his birth and death dates and places. Pic of entrance to cem. Spouse: Mary Matilda Wilcoxen 1821-1868. 9 children in 1 list and another listed alone all with dates. (copy) the name maybe Boman or Bowman as some of the children listed name as Boman and others as Bowman. So that maybe why his name is written the way it is and don't have pic of his stone to know what that says.

CONFEDERATE NORTH CAROLINA TROOPS

6th Regiment, North Carolina Cavalry

OVERVIEW: 65th Regiment Volunteers-6th Cavalry was organized in August, 1863, by consolidating the 5th and 7th North Carolina Cavalry Battalions. These two units had rendered efficient services in East Tennessee and Kentucky. Many of the men were from Ashe, Burke, Watauga, Transylvania, and Mitchell counties. The regiment fought at Chickamauga, then with other troops in Dibrell's Brigade gave support to Longstreet at Knoxville. It was then assigned to the Department of North Carolina and Southern Virginia. Under this command it saw action at New Bern, near Kinston, and along the Roanoke River. It was organized with 520 men and during February, 1864, had 273 present for duty. Attached to Butler's Cavalry Division, the unit disbanded near Salisbury in April, 1865. The field officers were Colonel George N. Folk, Lieutenant Colonels Alfred H. Baird and Thaddeus P. Siler, and Major John J. Spann.

HUSBAND - George Washington Ray

Info from the book "Wilcoxson and Allied Families" by Wulfeck pg 97. He married 2nd to cousin Amelia Esther Wilcoxson Byers #956 in book. He moved to Los Angles, CA.

George Moved to Fulton Co. IL in 1865 from North Carolina where he had served during the Civil War as a confederate soldier in Co. B. 6th N.C. Cavalry.

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places of PVt Georg Washington Ray. His death was listed here and on the stone as 30 May 1923. (another source said he d. Oklahoma City, OK) Confederate North Carolina Troops, 6th Regiment, NC Cavalry. A pic of their large grave marker in Salem-Wilcoxen cem. and also a pic of their farm in Liverpool, Fulton Co. IL from an atlas and pic of entrance to cem. Parents: William Ray 1813-1887 and Julie Ann Ray 1815-1871. Spouses: Anna Adeline Willcockson 1825-1904 and Esther Amelia Willcoxen 1857-1922.

1st mg listed internet at IL Mg Records site.

2nd mg in Fulton Co. IL also.

He died 31 May 1923, think the year was 1923, no year listed in his obit. but 2nd wife died Jun 20, 1922 so believe he died the next year. His death was at age 79 years 10 months 10 days. (calculates to birth 24 Jul 1843-GT) Son of Mr and Mrs William Ray. He died in Oklahoma City, OK and brought for funeral to be held at the Ray homestead in Liverpool twp Tuesday at 11am. The Rev Swisher of Lewistown will officiate and burial in the Wilcoxen cem. Survived by one brother, James A. Ray of Centralia, WA and half bro and sister, Wiley A. Ray, Maples Mills and Mrs Ida Clemons of Los Angeles, CA, also step-children Fred and Harry Byers of Liverpool twp, Mrs Della Barnes, ND and Mrs Lou Marss of Oklahoma City. It appears he was living in Liverpool twp on a farm until July last when he moved to Oklahoma City. Had no children by 2nd mg., none from 1st mg also.
The obit from internet site of Alice Stipak.

WIFE - Amelia Esther Wilcoxson

Info from the book "Wilcoxson and Allied Families" by Wulfeck. Research I did in Fulton Co. IL located them in IL census. She was living in Los Angles CA. and married twice. Death date listed 20 Jun 1920. Marriage date listed in book was 4 Feb 1905.

Mothers obit of 1903 she was listed as Mrs Amelia Wilcoxen living Lewistown, IL.

Internet site of Alice Stipak listed obit of husband George Ray and said she died 20 Jun 1922. So not sure which year it actually was. Husband was living in Oklahoma City, OK at his death 31 May 1923 so don't know if she died in OK or they were still in CA at time of her death. Also stated md Feb 1906.
His obit also stated they were living on a farm in Liverpool twp when the decedent continued to live until last July when he went to Oklahoma City to make his home. So would believe Amelia did die in Fulton Co. IL.

when small. Ghlee Helle and I both fell off when I was showing him how to gallop. Prince ran off with her and the buggy too. Guess he was quite spirited then. Mother said Dad always drove a nice horse and buggy.

When we moved I remember sitting in the car with Darrell until a stove was put up to warm the house. The roads were muddy and the horses had a hard time pulling the loaded wagons. We went to Vermont High School and boarded in town in the winter. My Freshman year we walked in through snow and I broke out with the measles after we got there. Dad came in with the wagon and horses to take me home.

Death of James C. Willcoxen

There was very general sadness in Lewistown last Wednesday over the news that this honored pioneer of Lewistown had died the day before, Dec. 31, 1907, at his home in Sturgis, S. D., after prolonged feebleness. He was born in Estill co., Ky., in 1829. His parents were Capt Elijah and Charlotte Calloway-Willcoxen who came to Liverpool, Fulton co., in 1830. Deceased got only a common school education in country schools, and worked on his father's farm until manhood. In 1851 he was married to Miss Clarissa Putman, daughter to that honored pioneer, Harrison Putman, this esteemed lady dying, July 8, 1877, leaving six children—

Mrs. Alice Graybeal, Liverpool tp.
L. C. Willcoxen, Lewistown.
Mrs. Emma Downing, deceased.
Mrs. Nettie Vandercar, York, Neb.
Mrs. Mary Lawrence, Chicago.
Oliver L. Willcoxen, out west.

In September, 1879, he was married to Miss Mary Alice Hair to whom has been born three sons—Calloway (married), Gordon and Frank. The widow and these three sons survive husband and father.

Mr. Willcoxen was born July 21, 1829. His brother, J. F. Willcoxen, is the only one left of this large family.

Mr. Willcoxen opened up the splendid 320 acre farm in the northwest corner of Liverpool tp., and erected thereon a splendid great two-story brick residence, all now the property of his son-in-law, Jacob Graybeal. In 1869 Mr. W. moved to Lewistown where he became interested in our National Bank, where he had extensive timber contracts, where he had a large part in erecting the $40,000 Beadles Block and many other substantial buildings, where he was connected with a score of business enteprises, was for a time a partner in our big woolen mill and the Burgett flouring mill, opened up and cultivated some 5000 acres of bottom and hill land, built and owned for years the suburb of Proctorville, built the Narrow Gauge railway from Havana to Fairview in 1878-9, winding up his meteorlike achievements by building a $65,000 roller flouring mill of 200-barrel capacity per day whose early destruction by fire ruined him finacially and resulted in his removal to Black Hawk, S. D., over 20 years ago.

Mr. Willcoxen here made fortunes. He employed regiments of men and scattered his wealth all over these hills and valleys among men who too often gave poor returns for his prodigal kindness to them. He was the victim of stupendous ingratitude and wanton robbery by men he had helped. But he was a very Jim Fisk of a "plunger," albeit the soul of honor in all his amazing audacious enterprises. His liberality was simply prodigal. The present Christian church building is one of his minor monuments here. Then he stood like a stonewall for temperance and public decency. In all these ways and as a practical, tireless friend of laboring men by the hundreds, James C. Willcoxen was the biggest man Fulton county ever produced. He would have covered these hills with factories if he could have found a first-class financeer to have kept the gallop with him. Big-hearted, true-blue, audacious Jim Willcoxen—we shall not again know a man like him—a truer friend, a nobler citizen. The generations will revere his name and not forget his mighty deeds for Lewistown's up-building, commercially and morally, until the fire fiend laid him low.

md 2nd to Mary C. Hendrickson.

Jeremiah was known as one of the most extensive stockraisers in the township and derived a liberal income from cattle, horses and hogs. Later he went into the banking business as large stock-holder and Vice president of the firm of Turner, Phelps & Company. When is failed in 1894 much of the land and collateral of Mr Willcoxen was swept away, his total loss being about $90,000. His sons now own the original old homestaed and have taken from his shoulders much of the responsibility of his affairs.

J.F. Willcoxen Dead - Jeremiah F. Willcoxen died Jan 4, 1912, in the ancestral home of his honored pioneer parents in Liverpool tp, where he was born, Feb 17, 1833 - where he had lived almost 78 years. He was recently stricken with paralysis from which he did not rally. He was next to the youngest child of those distinguished early pioneers of this county, Captain Elijah and Charlotte (Calloway) Willcoxen, who came to Liverpool twp. from KY in 1830, the next year locating on the land where the old Willcoxen home now stands. The great grandfather of deceased married Rachel Boone, a sister to the famous Daniel Boone. Jeremiah's mother also came from the finest line of early Americans in NC and KY. Deceased's only schooling was in the pioneer schools of his boyhood. But he not only mastered the business of farming, but was a well read and learned man in history, politics and religion. His parents were devout Baptists, but in the absence of that denomination in his neighborhood he became a member of the Christian church to which he was devoutly attached. Feb 21, 1867, he married to the beautiful and cultured Miss Lorinda Ryner of Elmwood. Their three children were Mary A., Frank B. and Charles L. all living in or near the old home. Wife and mother died Mar 19, 1884. Jan 19, 1890 Mr. W was married to Miss Mary C. Hendrickson, who died several years ago. The subject of this sketch was the last of a remarkable family of sons and daughters, viz., Zerilda, Jesse B., Nancy M., Elijah C., Andrew J., Mary E. (Cope), Isaiah M., Elizabeth C., Anna A. (Vail-Ray), Marshall N., James C., Charlotte, Jeremiah F. and America - all are now dead, but a wonderful family whose children and their descendants now number several hundred people young and old. As to numerous progeny and average high citizenship of the several generations, the family of Capt. Elijah Willcoxen and wife has no equal in the annals of Fulton county. This editor 60 or more years ago was intimately acquainted with Capt W. and his blessed wife, and particularly with Anna, James, Marshall, Jerry and America, when they, too, were young people. The writer has no happier childhood recollections than his frequent visits to the hospitable home and the strong friendships of the parents and younger sons and daughters. It would require columns to tell the tale of those happy days - to do justice to that remarkable family. Like their father, the sons were fine farmers and splendid business men, each of them of unblemished honor. They all acquired large acreages of fine land. Jerry at one time owned 2600 acres. Involved in the failure of the old Lewistown bank in 1894, he voluntarily gave up a large amount in land and money, the largest share in paying depositors over 60 % of their claims. He was only a stockholder and director in the bank and had no part in its management.

Deceased held many local offices in his township and was sheriff of Fulton county during 1862-63, a two year term. Fulton county never had a finer official nor a better citizen than Jeremiah F. Willcoxen. Rev. Dr. BY George of Elmwood, a cherished friend of the Willcoxen generations, conducted funeral services on Sunday at 2 p.m, with burial in the Willcoxen cemetery where many generations of that name await the resurrection morn. It was the coldest day this section has known for many years. Only very robust people dared face the icy blast at 18 degrees below zero. A great multitude otherwise would have thronged the home in honor of the good man. The respect shown him was remarkable. A wealth of very rare flowers covered the casket and grave.

Notes

HUSBAND - Joseph Graybeal

Wilcoxson Book. (listed md Fred Severt)

Find A Grave internet site listed she was married to Clarrissa Faw 1827-1913. He was also married to Belinda Testerman 1819 -?. Joseph and Clarrissa had 9 children listed. It might appear his first two children by 1st wife Belinda as b 1839-1843 then other children listed birth dates of 1850-1865 so believe those would be from 2nd wife.

Mary Ann Graybeal Pennington 1839-1919 and Simeon Graybeal 1843-1895 (1st mg?) Pic of his grave marker and 5 siblings with birth and death dates. (copy)

Benjamin was married and had 3 children

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places of Benjamin. Said Benjamin was the youngest of 7 known children of John Randolph Faw 1792-1875 and Nancy (born Mary?) Calloway 1796-1876 who md ca 1814 believe Ashe Co. NC. (first time have seen Nancy born as Mary, none of the other children mentioned that-GLT). Benjamin married Rebecca Ann McNeill 1840-1909 on 16 Feb 1859 at Ashe co. NC. They were the parents of 9 children. Listed the 9 children with birth and death dates. Picture of grave marker of Benjamin with birth & death and age of 58 yrs 2 mo 21?da.or 2 da? Picture of entrance of Calloway cem.
1860 Benjamin, Rebecca & dau Laura age 3 mo living at Ashe co. NC.
1870 the family Benjamin 29, Rebecca 29, Phenis B. 9, Ruda 6, Avary 4 and America 1, living at Jefferson, Ashe Co. NC.
1880 11-12 Jun Benjamin 40, Rebecca 39, Finis B. 18, Nancy dau in law 16, wife of Finis, Emmett R. 16, Avery 14, America 10, Edith F. 5, Dora A. 1, living Jefferson, Ashe Co. NC.
Questions were some of the dates of the children shown abovre. Why wasn't Euphronia listed on the 1880 census? When did Edith die? Was Dora born 1879 or 1880. Rebecca said she was the mother of eight, four living. Note: this doesn't agree with the above listing either.as five children were shown that lived past 1900. Living next door was the family of John Phillips b.Feb 1866 with wife Saphrona (sic, should be Euphronia Faw Phillips b. Aug 1868 and many children. Was Euphronia really born in 1868 and the same child as America?
He listed 9 children on his site and Rebecca listed 8 children on her site.
Benjamin listed Edith F. 1875-1879 and Eady E. 1875-1879 and (which would have been 10 children instead of 9. Believe those two was the same. Edith F. age 5 in 1880 and no Eady E. (copy)
Benjamin listed 4 children living after 1909 and Rebecca's list said 3 children living after 1909.

In 1860 Benjamin, Rebecca and and daughter Laura (age 3 months) were living at Ashe County, North Carolina. In 1870 the family: Benjamin (age 29), Rebecca (age 29), Phenis B. (age 1) were living at Jefferson, Ashe County, North Carolina. This brings into question some of the dates of the children shown above. Why wasn't Euphronia listed on the 1880 census? When did Edith die? Was Dora born 1879, not 1880? In 1900 Rebecca was living alone at Jefferson, Ashe County, North Carolina. She said she was the mother of eight, four living. Note this doesn't agree with the above listing, as five children were shown that lived past 1900. Living next door was the family of John

Elijah Calloway Willcockson

Birth: Mar. 12, 1817

Death: Jan. 22, 1872
Fulton County

Added by: HMartin

Elijah Calloway Willcockson was the fourth of fifteen known children of Capt. Elijah Wilcoxen (1789-1860) and Charlotte Calloway (1792-1875), who married on 21 Nov 1811 at Ashe County, North Carolina.

Added by: Ngburton

Some records show Elijah died 22 Jan 1890; but it is believed that the 1872 death date is correct and his grave marker says 1872. Most Fulton County, Illinois records spell his surname as Wilcoxen, but his grave marker says Willcockson, so I will list it that way.

Elijah married Prudence Putnam (1820-1882) on 22 Sep 1836 at Fulton County, Illinois. Elijah and Prudence were the parents of fifteen known children, namely:

1. Redding Quincy Wilcoxson (1838–1907)
2. Marshall N. Willcoxen (1838–1847)
3. Elvira Willcoxen Faw (1839–1899)
4. Nancy Matilda Willcoxen (1841–1906)
5. Elijah Willcoxen (1844–1862)
6. Anna Elizabeth Wilcoxen (1844–1861)
7. Jane Willcoxen (1846–1868)
8. James M. Willcoxen (1848–1917)
9. Prudence Belle Wilcoxen (1851–1925)
10. Calloway E. Willcoxen (1854–1876)
11. Stephen Douglas Willcoxen (1856–1916)
12. Rebecca Willcoxen (1860–1884)
13. Pacanin Wilcoxen (1861–1875)
14. Jesse Boone Wilcoxson (???-???)
15. Andrew Jackson Wilcoxson (???-???)

The order of birth of the last two children is uncertain.

HUSBAND - Joseph Wilson

BIRTH: No definate date of birth. Was William Wilson his father? Melvina Arnett listed birth and death year for Joseph.

MARRIAGE: Recorded Washington Co. TN 1794: Joseph Willson to Sarah Cutbert md by Joseph Ford. Have copy which is listed Territory of the Unites States South of the Ohio County.

DEATH: No date located as yet. Don't know where they were.

Not located in Find A Grave. Would think he would be there if died 1841 KY or TN?

Land record dated 13 Feb 1804 Bk A pg 465 Carter Co. TN between Joseph Wilson and Solomon Griffin sold for $400 land in Carter Co., being a grant to William Wilson in NC. Stated land was on top of a hill, a conditional line between the said Benjamin Cutbirth and John McElyace. to a stake near the said Benjamin Cutbirth Jun's fence. (Sarah being dau of Benjamin, was this referring to Jr and SR or the same and which one referred to?).

Not located them in census records, however there were a few Joseph Wilson's in different places but don't know if this one. ?????

"Tennessee Cousins" pg 92 Under Johnson Co. TN. During the next twenty years and before 1798 along Roane Creek and Little Doe River is found the names of others: Joseph Wilson, John Wilson, Garland Wilson, Benjamin & Daniel Cuthberth. Dear Melvina:

I am attaching a copy of the ORIGINAL marriage record of Joseph Willson (Wilson) and Sarah Cutbert. The "penal sum of Ten hundred dollars" was the required amount of bond put up to insure the marriage would take place. This sum was comparable to bond given by a registered bondsman of today. At any rate some person had to go bond or Security for a couple to be able to get married. This practice went on until at least 1890!!! If this were true today, we could give this as an excuse for a couple to "shack up". Anyway the amount of bond was raised to $1200 by the year 1800 or at least by that time. Note the "f's" in place of "s" such as feverally for severally and fucceffors for successors. The name at the bottom is Joseph Foard (Seal)- he was an official of the court at the time. On the back - the license were obtained the same day they were married. Note also that at this time what is now Washington County, TN was then the Territory of the United States South of the River Ohio Country. This was one of the five titles we had before statehood in 1796.

I have made checks in Greene County and Carter County (two counties formed from Washington) and also another county of Sullivan - the first county formed from Washington. In Sullivan County early deeds I found a Benjamin Wilson bought land from Phillip Foust "120 acres on Reedy Creek 16 Nov. 1807"- this deed is SUPPOSED to be in Book 6 page 232. Also William Wilson bought land from Joseph Willson - 108 acres, 17 Jan. 1800 Book 4, 784. Two others listed as "Willsum (sic): Joseph Willsum from Robert Willson 180 acres 15 Feb. 1802 (Book 4 page 431) and William Willsum from Robert Willson, 152 acres on Reedy Creek 15 May 1803 (Book 4 page 506). Benjamin Wilson sold to Jacob Droke 120 acres on Reedy Creek 10 Aug. 1818 (book 6 page 311). Where I am saying bought/sold it could be the reverse - it is hard to tell who was buying or selling from the book I have FIRST LAND OWNERS OF SULLIVAN COUNTY, TN by Vineyard (now out of print).

I don't find Benjamin Willson listed in any of the land grants, etc. but I do find a Joseph Wilson listed as receiving a land grant (they paid 50 shillings per 100 acres for it) 300 acres "on Mill Creek Branch of Big Limestone" in 1782. This is the present Washington County. He got another grant in 1783 for 140 acres "on the east side of a glade joining McBrides lines." Another 100 acres the same year "on the east side of Mill Creek."And still another 100 acres "on the waters of Mill Creek." These last two were separate grants. Then in Greene Co (formed from Washington) Joseph Wilson had another 300 acres on "Little Chucky" (Nolachucky River) All of these were in about the same area. Possibly some of the land joined - it would hard to determine unless the deeds gave more information. The foregoing information is from NORTH CAROLINA LAND GRANTS IN TN 1778-1791 by Goldene F. Burgner.

The address of Sullivan County Court is Blountville, TN 37617 in case you want a copy of any of the deeds - it may be too early to tell if these Willsons are actually yours.

Sincerely,

Dessie

The above grants hint that these Wilsons could have served in the Revolutionary War. I do not have anything to prove or disprove.

Dear Melvina:

I am attaching a copy of the ORIGINAL marriage record of Joseph Wilson (Wilson) and Sarah Cutcher. The "penal sum of Two hundred dollars" was the required amount of bond put up to insure the marriage would take place. This sum was comparable to bond given by a registered bondsman of today. At any rate some person had to go bond or security for a couple to be able to get married. This practice went on until at least 1870(?). At this true today, we could give this as an excuse for a couple to "shack up". Anyway the amount of bond was raised to $1500 by the year 1900 or at least by that time. Note the "i's" in place of "e" such as Joseph Foard (Seal)- be sure to for successors. The name at the bottom is Joseph Foard (Seal)- be sure to official of the court at the time. On the back - the license says obtained the same day they were married. Note also that at this time is now Washington County, TN was then the Territory of the United States South of the River Ohio Country. This was one of the long cities we had before statehood in 1796.

I have made checks in Carter County and Carter County (two counties formed from Washington) and also Cocke County and Sullivan - the first county formed from Washington. In Sullivan County early deeds I found a Benjamin Wilson bought land (one Phillip Foust 4/20 across on Brady Creek 15 Nov. 1802)- this deed is SUPPOSED to be in Book A page 212. Also William Wilson bought land from Joseph Wilson - 150 acres, 17 Jan. 1800 Book A, 284. Two others listed as "William (also!) Joseph Wilson from Robert Wilson 150 acres 15 Feb. 1802 (book A page 211) and William Wilson from Robert Wilson, 132 acres on Brady Creek 15 May 1803 (book A page 300). Benjamin Wilson sold to Jacob Drake 120 acres on Brady Creek 10 Aug. 1803 (book A page 311). Where I am saying bought/sold it could be the reverse - it is hard to tell who was buying or selling from the book-I have FIRST LAND OWNERS OF SULLIVAN COUNTY, TN by Winstead (see out of print).

I don't find Benjamin Wilson listed in any of the land grants, etc. but I do find a Joseph Wilson listed as receiving a 3sm grant (three-hundred 50 Hundredths per 100 acres for 1) 300 acres "on Mill Creek beneath of Mile Timmerone" in 1787. This is the present Washington County. He got another grant in 1793 for 150 acres "on the east side of a pond joining Nicholas Sloss." Another 100 acres the same year "on the east side of Mill Creek."And still another 100 acres "on the waters of Mill Creek." Those last two were separate grants. Then in Crooms Co (formed from Washington) Joseph Wilson had another 100 acres on "Little Chucky" (Nolachucky River). All of these were in about the same area. Possibly some of the land joined - it would have to determine unless the deeds gave more information. The foregoing information is from NORTH CAROLINA LAND GRANTS IN TN 1778-1791 by Goldene F. Bridges.

The address of Sullivan County Court is Blountville, TN 37617 in case you want a copy of any of the deeds - it may be too early to tell if these Williams are actually yours.

Sincerely,

The above proves that these Wilsons could have served in the Revolutionary War. I do not have anything to prove or disprove.
